

Union Pulse

Colorado Springs Education Association
April 16, 2020

Financial Assistance

The IRS has launched an online form that will allow you to get your stimulus checks faster. Learn more here.

The NEA has information to share with you regarding student loans.

Brian Sarrett, your California Casualty representative, has asked that we share the following message with you:

Thank you, CSEA members for all that you do for our community. While so many things are uncertain, take some comfort in knowing that California Casualty is here for you. We also understand that many across the nation are experiencing financial hardships and looking for savings. California Casualty continues to offer flexible monthly payment options including 'Summer Skip'. For additional information, please contact Brian.

Our local businesses need help, too. Here are some ways you can support businesses.

Teaching And Academic Resources

It's important to keep the sense of community going in an online classroom. Edutopia shares five tips for building and maintaining that community here.

The Smithsonian has many distance learning opportunities in a wide variety of topics here.

For Your Pleasure And Health

Want to bake something yummy and comforting but don't have your normal ingredients? Perhaps this will help you get creative.

The popular LUNCH DOODLES with Mo Willems, through The Kennedy Center, has lots of for opportunities and resources for your littles.

Trying to stay healthy while you're at home, can't visit the gym, and have no special equipment? Check this out!

www.cseateacher.org

csea@coloradoea.org

This correspondence is intended for members of CSEA, ESPA, CEA, and their families. It is not intended for public distribution.